

I am disappointed in the FCC's ruling that the MNF skit with N. Sheridan and T. Owens wasn't indecent. It was very offensive to anyone who has little children. There was no warning as to what was about to happen. The NFL apologized and so did ABC; the reason was that the whole thing was indecent. Maybe that is why John Madden refused to do the skit. I hope the FCC will start doing it's job or just quit wasting taxpayer money.
